Judge Ikeler and L. S. Wintersteen have fallen in line, and removed their front fences.

B. B. Freas has opened an ice cream parlor on East street, and is prepared to furnish cream at any time, day or night.

An equestrian party of twelve ladies and gentlemen went out on Monday afternoon. They made quite a cavalcade as they rode through town.

At a meeting of the Agricultural Society last Saturday the Dining Hall was let to the Episcopal church, and the printing of the Premium lists was awarded to THE COLUMBIAN.

Patrick Gallager of Centralia was committed to jail on Tuesday on a charge of stabbing Richard Cain. Thomas Boran brought the prisoner up to Bloomsburg,

A very nice lunch consisting of clam chowder, cold ham, bread and butter and cabbage was served at the Exchange Hotel on Wednesday night by Messrs McCloskey & Tracy, the energetic landlords.

The merry-go-round which has been in operation at the corner of Main and East streets the past two weeks, was sold by Sheriff Mourey on Tuesday, a half interest bringing $50. Lawyer Barrett of Dubois was the purchaser. It was taken away on Wednesday.

At the Session of Bloomsburg Council No. 146 held May 31st it was resolved that a vote of thanks be tendered Louis Lowenberg, John Masteller, and William Taylor for the arrangement and presentation of a bier of Wild Flowers used by the Council in decorating Soldier's graves.

Miss Hannah Worman, sister of the late Samuel Worman, died at her home in Espy on Monday morning. Her age was 69 years. She was an excellent christian woman. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, and the burial took place at Afton.

Mrs. Chalfant, wife of ex-Senator Thomas Chalfant, editor of the Danville Intilligencer, died suddenly at Danville on Monday. Her husband is at present in California, being one of the delegates from this state to the National Editorial Association. The funeral took place on Thursday.

May Davenport's Company exhibited under a tent at Athletic Park last Monday night. The show did not come up to the promises made in the hand bills, and a large number of men were disappointed. The advertisements were very loud, but the performance is said to have been a very quiet one.

There are now entered on the job order book of this office, orders for 3000 Catalogues for the Normal School, 2000 magazines called the Philologian Advance, for the Philologian Society of the Normal, and 1200 Premium Lists for the Columbia County Agricultural Society. All of this work was allotted on bids, and THE COLUMBIAN being the lowest bidder, was awarded the contract.

Harry H. Rutter, editor of the Hughesville Mail, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative in Lycoming county, and he ought to make it. He has worked hard and faithfully for the party, and deserves some recognition from its hands. Besides this, he is honest, capable, and fearless, and Lycoming county would do herself credit by nominating him.

BERWICK AND VICINITY.

The Variety store in McMurtrie Buildings have added one more room to their business. Jas. McHenry of Washington, was visiting here last week.

Dan'l Wright is again at work in the wheel foundry after being confined at home with a long seige of sickness. Jno. Hoppler, of Canton, Ohio has been visiting us lately. D. Varner has purchased the Bredbender property on 2nd., street, and is now living in it. Our doctors have their hands full with the sick of Berwick.

It is supposed Berwick will be illuminated with electric lights shortly. These will be halcyon nights to escape dry goods boxes and pitfalls, stumble and fall upon your lovely contenance and all that sort of a thing. It is rumored that J. W. & Co. will build some more new houses this spring. Taylor J. Evans is clerk at the toll bridge. A new whistle has been placed on the switch engine. Thos. Vannatta has the contract for the construction of new sewer to be built in Berwick, commencing at Pine street leading down Market to Second, to Oak and out Oak to a connection with iron pipe laid under the canal. Arbor Day was handsomely celebrated by our public schools.

Dr. Adams is full of practice at Evansville. Wm. Lamon is finishing up assessorship and preparing to furnish us new and better roads this summer. Wm. Walp has one of the improved farms in this section and keeps up to his old standard in improving his farm. We are glad to note that Mrs. Dreisbach has so far improved that she is enabled to take the sunshine occasionally in the shape of walking alone. She has had a long and serious seige. The High School named and planted nine trees in their grounds. Let it be repeated annually.

Maj. Coolbaugh, Quartermaster of Third Brigade, visited Berwick Wednesday of last week, and thinks favorably of the fair grounds as a suitable place for the encampment of ninth Regt., which will encamp here in July 23rd to 30th. We anticipate military times here then.

Examinations are going on at High School for graduates, and those to be promoted. There will be a fine show of proficiency by the 2nd of June.

S. W. Hess has left for a trip in the South.

Druggist Briggs of Shickshinny was in town on business recently.

Mrs. J. S. Houseknecht of Shenandoah has been visiting the past week, her parents. Thomas Lauer and L. G. Hagenbuch have been visiting in Philadelphia. Misses Cora Neihart and Martha Knorr, of Bloomsburg have been visiting friends in town.

E. church Sunday evening May 29th. The Class Day exercises occured in the Opera House Tuesday evening May 31st and the Commencement on Thursday evening June 2nd.

Col. A. D. Seely will act as Chief Marshal at Bloom on 4th of July by especial invitation. Ruth Fowler was buried last week. The Berwick Cornet Band went to Scranton on Tuesday last. Minor Hortman has moved his shoe shop on the vacant lot next to Haas' butcher shop. A Tennis Club is about to be formed in town.

Mr. E. J. Bowman presented his famous lecture on "Our Impressions make us what we are,' to the public at the P. O. S. of A. Opera House Berwick Pa., Saturday May 21st, at 8 p. m. This is the lecture Mr Bowman delivered before Governor Fletcher and the Legislature at Jefferson City Misouri. We are all acquainted with Mr. Bowman's ortorical powers.

Josie, the eight year old daughter of Judge C. G. Murphy, died at her home in Centralia on Sunday. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Judge and his family have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their affliction.

A. C. Sisson of La Plume, Penna. "Monarch of song", and entertaining in story will be at Millville on Wednesday June 8th. Pic-nic under the auspices of "The Valley Grange", in the grove if weather be favorable. Come all and enjoy a day's recreation. Bring basket.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

The Jackson township Sunday school Institute convened in the Union church at Waller, Pa., May 28th, 1892, and was called to order at 1:30 P. M. by the township President, J. Preston Yorks.

It was very largely attended, the church being filled in the afternoon and very much overcrowded in the evening while some were unable even to find standing room in the church. The following is a partial program; the music which deserves special commendation on account of its excellence, being mostly omitted together with some minor details.

The Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. S. P. Boone of Buckhorn.

Rev S. I. Shortess made the address of welcome to which Rev. Boone responded.

The following officers were elected: Vice President, Clarence Butt; Secretary, J. G. Whitmire; Treasurer, Philip Hirleman.

Dr. I. L. Edwards then opened the discussion on "The advantage of the Sunday school to the community," followed with remarks by J. P. Yorks.

"How to prepare the Sunday school lesson," was then introduced by Rev. J. G. Whitmire.

Recitations by Misses Alverda Fritz and Annie Butt.

Mr. Clarence Butt then opened the discussion, "Should Sunday schools be closed during the winter." Theis question received a great deal of attention and he was followed with appropriate remarks from Dr. Edwards, Revs. Whitmire and Boone, Mrs. Whitmire, Miss Everhart and Messrs. Young and Yorks, all were agreed that Sunday schools should by all means be kept open during the entire year.

Rev. S. P. Boone then very ably addressed the convention speaking principally of order and interest in the Sunday school.

"How to interest young people in Sunday school work" was then earnestly and instructively dwelt upon at some length by Rev. J. L. Duncan of Rohrsburg.

The evening sessions were opened with music by the choir and Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. S. I. Shortess.

In the absence of Rev. Tubbs, Rev. J. G. Whitmire opened the discussion on "The teacher's responsibility."

Recitation, "All for Jesus," by Miss Ella Richie.

Rev. S. I. Shortess spoke on "What should the Sunday school teach?"

Recitations, "The best that I can," Miss Annie Fornwald, and "Bennie's Idea" Miss Mattie Mendenhall.

The President then introduced Bishop Breyfogle, of Reading, who spoke in a very pleasing and entertaining manner on "God's great plan in the Sunday school," illustrating his points by numerous apt and well received anecdotes.

"Scatter Seeds of Kindness" was sung by two little girls.

A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered Miss Annie Edwards of Benton for her services as organist.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Be it Resolved: That we thank the president, Mr. J. P. Yorks for his earnest efforts in preparing such an interesting programme.

Resolved: That we thank the choir for their excellent selections, and Miss Annie Edwards for her kindness in furnishing instrumental music.

Resolved: That we thank Mrs. H. H. Hirleman for the use of her organ.

Resolved: That we thank the speakers for their excellent discussions on Sunday school work; and we also thank all those who took part in making the Institute a success.

CLARENCE BUTT, ELLA MCHENRY, GEORGE ROBERTS } Committee.

The Institute closed by singing "God be with you," and benediction by Rev. J. G. Whitmire.

Chas. P. Elwell, having returned from Boston, where he has been a music student for the past three years, will give lessons on piano or violin. Piano lessons in New England Conservatory Method, violin in German method, as taught by Emil Mahr, of N. E. Conservatory, and Henry Heindl of Boston Symphony Orchestra. Also lessons in harmony and instrumentation. tf.

While in Philadelphia last week J. M. Staver lost his Mystic Shrine badge. On Tuesday morning he received a letter from a gentleman in Spring Lake, New Jersey, saying that he had found the badge on Chestnut street. Mr. Staver's name was on the back of it.

Mrs. Rebecca May was buried on Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. C. Leverett conducting the services.

MILLVILLE.

The man that "winks his other eye'. is now receiving bark at the station for Alf. Stevens.

Mrs. McGeorgle, mother of Clinton Peg of near here moved in the house of Hannah John on Main street.

Sherman Cole was married last week and will move in the Edward's brick house on State street. An infare was held at the home of Joseph Cole's on Saturday in honor of the occasion.

Base ball is undoubtedly on a boom in this section, as a game played at this place on Decoration Day between a picked nine from here and Greenwood gives ample evidence. The score at the end of the game stood thirty to fifteen in favor of Greenwood

Norman and Lester John started for Nebraska last Friday to visit relatives at that place.

Frank, son of L. M. German of Unityville is spending a few days in town.

We had quite a scare last Monday night. An alarm of fire was given and the "Boys" had the H. and L. truck out in good shape and was enroute when word was sent that the fire had been extinguished. The fire was started by S. W. Kisner going in the cellar way with a candle which set fire to some newspapers hanging on a rope over head. There was no damage done with the exceptions of rope and paper.

S. M. Eckman & Son have put a new roof on the creamery.

Fannie Kester who has been sick for some time is now convalescing.

Fred Faux of Bloomsburg is now baking for U. C. Oblosser.

Dr. Loom Christian was in town a few days visiting his Bros. H. S & J. C. Christian of this place.

J. F. Lemons moved in part of J. B Eves' house on main street.

Estella Robbins of Unityville is working in town at her trade of dressmaking.

Street question seems at present to be the all absorbing theme, look which way you will you can generally see groups of men takeing a view of the street and giving their opinion as to the best method of repairing them ect.

Pliney, get your gun and perhaps you will be more successfull next time.

Quit a number of our town folks were taken in by the lying agent that were through here getting Photos for Crayon work.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.

Arrangements for the next Teachers Institute, December 19th–23 are about completed. The best available talent has been secured. None but those having the best recommendations from prominent persons have been engaged.

For Monday evening.—Rev. Theo. F. Clark of Brooklyn, (not the Clark that was in the Normal course last year.)

Tuesday evening.—Dr. P. S. Henson of Chicago; Wednesday evening, Rev. Russell H, Conwell of Philadelphia; Thursday evening, The Shubert Male Quartette of Chicago—four gentlemen and three ladies. Music instrumental and vocal. Each one is an artist and comes very highly recommended. This is one of the strongest courses ever booked for Bloomsburg.

Dr. E. E White of Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. White easily ranks with the very first of the leading educators of the U. S. Supt. J. M. Caughlin of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Prof. C. C. Case of Detroit, Michigan.

The Department of Public Instruction will be represented, and several other well known educators will be present.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

The members of the choir of St. Paul's church were invited down to the residence of Mr. Midgley on Market street last Friday evening. They took their books along, and after they had sung a number of pieces they were invited out to the dining room, where a delicious repast was served up to them. All enjoyed themselves greatly, and at the close a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Midgley for their hospitality. All the boys were unanimously of the opinion that the example set by the host and hostess of the evening was an excellent one, and well worthy of emulation by other members of the congregation.

LEAP YEAR PARTY.

A Leap year party will be given by the young ladies of Bloomsburg, at the Exchange Hotel, this Friday night. Bauer's orchestra of Scranton will furnish the music. A delightful time is anticipated.

Sterner The defendant's attorneys held that the court had no power to release the bondsmen. The court overruled the demurrer and ordered that Sterner answer on Saturday at 2 o'clock P. M.

DECORATION DAY.

The rain on Monday morning threatened to interfere with the exercises of Memorial Day, but towards noon it cleared up, and in the afternoon it became very warm. The parade was unusually large, and was participated in by the Bloomsburg Cornet Band, Ent Post, G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, American Mechanics, Drum Corps, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Junior Mechanics, Friendship Fire Company, and the two literary societies of the Normal School. Flowers were in profusion, and especially noticeable was the floral design carried by the O. U. A. M., which was arranged by L. Lowenberg, W. B. Taylor and John W. Masteller. After the exercises at Rosemont, a very interesting address was delivered in the Opera House by Rev P. A. Heilman. It was highly commended by all who heard it.

SEWING MACHINE GIVEN AWAY.

During the past week there has been on exhibition at the music rooms of J. Saltzer a beautiful exhibit of fancy needle work done on the White Sewing machine, consisting of elaborate lace curtains, banners, portieres, photographs in etching, and many other fine specimens. Every lady visiting the exhibit is given a number and the one holding the lucky number will be given a White Sewing machine valued at $50.00. The exhibit closes on Saturday night.

NORMAL NOTES.

The Normal excursion was well attended last week, Thursday, and was a very pleasant occasion.

A new slate roof is being put on Institute Hall.

The work in the hall is rapidly approaching completion. The carpenter work is all done, and the plastering and painting is nearly done.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., post office and will be sent to the dead letter office June 14, 1892.

Charles Hassert has made a contract with B. W. Jury for the erection of two double houses on Seventh street.

THE HIRED MAN.

"You've come, have you?" said my mother-in-law, in a deep voice, as she stood on the threshold, grimly surveying me with eyes that shone like hard, greenish-blue gooseberries behind her spectacles.

It was rather a curious complication. My mother-in-law had not the least idea who I was. I had cheerfully intended to take her by surprise; but now that the eventful moment had arrived, my courage was oozing out at the ends of my fingers.

My name is Richard Dalton. I was then just twenty-one, with a face that was not absolutely ugly, a sublime audacity and pockets not particularly well-lined, and I had just distinguished myself by running away with a pretty girl from boarding-school.

"But, Dick," she had remonstrated, "we've nothing to live on."

"Don't be a goose, darling," had been my reply. "What do people need to live on? All the wants of this world, more or less, are fictitious. A crust of bread and a glass of water three times a day, and now and then a suit of clothes—we must be poor, indeed, if we can't manage to compass that."

Nettie had looked admiringly upon me, and acquiesced in my argument. We had taken board at the Angel Hill Hotel, and began our honeymoon royally. At the end of a month mine host had become a little importunate on the subject of his bill, and Nettie's mother had written a letter to her, signifying that she wanted nothing whatever to do with us. We had made our own bed, she signified, and now we might lie on it.

"Oh, Dick," cried Nettie, clasping her hands, "what are we to do?"

"Hanged if I know!" was my rather blank response. "But don't cry, darling, I'll go and see her myself."

"You, Dick!"

"I, myself."

"She'll have nothing to say to you."

"She can't help herself."

"She'll turn you out of doors."

"We'll see about that."

"But, Dick, you don't know—you can't have any idea—how terrible she is," sighed Nettie.

"Saint George conquered the dragon, my love," I asserted, cheerfully, "and I mean to conquer your mother! So pack my valise, there's a darling, and I'll be off before the landlord comes back from Boston!"

"But, Dick, if he's troublesome, what can I say to him?" appealed poor little, frightened Nettie.

"Tell him I've gone out of town, and shall be back in a few days," said I, confidently.

But when I walked resolutely up to my mother-in-law's door she greeted me as if I had been expected for the last week or so.

"You've come, have you?" was the salutation.

"Well, yes," I admitted, "I've come."

"What on earth detained you?" said she.

In my mind I cast about what to say, and settled on the first convenient excuse that came into my head.

"The train was delayed at Bogletown," said I.

"Well, come in, now that you're here," she said, "and get warm. Its awful cold weather for this time o' year, isn't it?"

"Kinder," said I, with an assenting nod.

"You are married, I suppose?" she said.

"Oh, yes," said I, swallowing the hot coffee and winking my eyes very hard, "I'm married."

"Can your wife make herself generally useful about the place?" sharply demanded the old lady.

"Certainly she can," said I, beginning vaguely to see my way through the mists of perplexity that had heretofore obscured my brain.

"How old is she?" asked Mrs. Martin.

"Eighteen," I answered.

Mrs. Martin frowned.

"What does possess girls to get married nowadays," said she, "before they've left off dolls and patchwork?"

I looked thoughtfully down at the pattern of my plate—a pink Chinaman crossing a carmine bridge, with two very red willows drooping at the far end of it, and some impossible streaks of weather below—and made no direct answer. My mother-in-law was doubtlessly laboring under a misapprehension, but I did not exactly see that it was my business to set her right. She had evidently engaged a hired man, and took it for granted that I was the personage in question.

"What can you do?" she asked, abruptly. And with equal curtness I responded:

"Anything."

"Come, I like that," said my mother-in-law, rubbing her hands. "At least you are not afraid of work. Do you understand cows and horses?"

"Well—not much," I owned. "There were no cattle at my last place." (Which was very true, for I had been a clerk in a bank at $300 a year.) "But I have not the least doubt that I could soon learn if you would kindly show me what is expected of me."

"Can you cut wood?" she asked.

"Certainly," said I, reflecting to myself that any fool might do that.

She asked one or two questions more, which I answered with the blind fatuity which attends youth and confidence. She seemed pleased at my willingness to undertake anything and everything.

"And now about wages," said she, briskly. "What will you ask—for your own services and those of your wife—by the month?"

I fitted the tips of my fingers reflective together.

"As we are both rather inexperienced," said I, "we'll agree to work the first month for our board. After that you shall pay us what you think we are both worth."

"Hum—hum!" said my mother-in-law. "That's a sensible proposition—a very sensible one, indeed. Well, send for the young woman at once. In the meantime I'll show you over the place and explain to you the nature of your duties."

So I hired myself out to my mother-in-law as farmhand, without further ceremony, and immediately wrote and posted a letter to Nettie. On my return from the postoffice I met a burly young man meditating at a spot where four roads meet.

"Can you tell me, sir," said he, "where Mrs. Abel Martin lives?"

"Oh, yes, sir; I can tell you," I responded, affably. "But if you're looking for the situation of hired man I may as well tell you that it's filled."

The burly young man made some remarks, indicative, in a general way, of his opinion of the fickleness of womankind, and departed, while I returned rejoicing to the old farmhouse.

"Here's a very nice beginning," said I to myself. It is now my business to give as much satisfaction as possible."

Fortune favored me in more ways than one. My mother-in-law sprained her ankle on the second day, and I played cook as well as man-of-all-work with distinguished success, and I had the satisfaction of hearing her say to old Miss Priscilla Perkins that "she didn't know when she'd taken such a notion to any one as she had to the new hired man!"

"He's too young and good-looking to suit me," observed Miss Priscilla, pursing up her steel-trap of a mouth.

"He is good-looking, ain't he?" said my mother-in-law. "But he's dreadful handy about the house, and he ain't one bit afraid of work. And you'd ought to have seen the oysters he stewed for my supper last night, and the cup of tea he made. Why I don't miss Jemima Stiles one bit. If only Nettie could have stayed single till she met such a man as this!"

I smiled to myself as I laid out the kindlings for the breakfast fire. My accomplishments as "Jack-of-all-trades" had never done me much good before. But now they were certainly winning me some credit in the world.

At the end of the third day she had told me the whole story of her daughter's runaway match with "a good-for-nothing young city chap." On the fourth day she had consulted with me as to whether it would be better to put the forty-acre lot into oats or rye, and I had won her heart by taking to pieces the old hall-clock, which had not gone for ten years and restoring it to running order once again.

And on the evening of the same day Nettie arrived, all blushing and trembling.

"Oh, Dick," said she, "is she very angry?"

"My dear," said I, "she hasn't an idea who I am."

"But, Dick"——

"No 'buts,' my darling," said I, cheerfully. "Let us be Julius Cæsar over again. 'We come, we see, we conquer.'"

And I dragged my unwilling little wife into the back room, where my mother-in-law lay on a sofa, nursing her ankle.

Mrs. Martin jumped up, spite of the wounded ankle.

"Here's my wife, ma'am," said I, "and I hope she'll give satisfaction."

"Nettie," she cried, in blank amazement.

"Oh, mother, mother!" faltered Nettie, throwing both hands around the old lady's neck, "please forgive me this time and I'll never, never elope again."

"Please ma'am, we'll be good," added I.

And my mother-in-law relented on the spot. How could she do otherwise?

"Henrietta," said she, "you've been a naughty girl—there's no denying that. But your husband seems a handy man about the house, and I'm tired of living here alone. So take off your things and go to work getting supper. As for you, Richard—"

"Yes, ma'am, I know," said I. "I've been playing a double part and deceived you all along. But I wanted you to like me—and you know," I added, "all is fair in love and war!"

"Well, I do like you—a little," admitted my mother-in-law. "And now that I have seen you, Dick, I don't so much wonder at the way Nettie behaved."

After that she never scolded us any more. And I honestly believe that this is the only case on record in which a mother-in-law was conquered in so brief a campaign. Nettie says she doesn't know how I did it. In fact, I don't quite know, myself.—Amy Randolph, in New York Ledger.

Origin of a Famous Word.

Emmanuel, one of the earliest of the Dukes of Savoy, is known to fame as the Turncoat. He obtained this nickname for a curious reason. His territories were inconveniently near to the forces of both Spain and France, with which powers he found it necessary to be on friendly terms, as they were often in the habit of invading his dukedom. However, he had to side sometimes with the one, sometimes with the other, according to which were stronger at the moment. So he had a coat made that was blue on one side and white on the other. When he took part with Spain he wore the blue side—the Spanish color—out; when he wanted to stand well with the French he turned the white side out. There was something to be said for the poor man in such a fix, but history, that has no mercy, only knows him as the Turncoat. A favorite instance in England of a man who always took care to be on the right side was the famous Vicar of Bray.

The Tricky Hindoo.

Another ingenious device of the mild Hindoo is to drill a hole in the thickness of a rupee, and then, with infinite labor and skill, to scrape the silver from the inside, leaving only a sort of shell without damaging the impression or the ring. Lead is then poured gently in, mixed with some alloy which gives the requisite ring, and the hole is carefully closed. Only a very keen and experienced eye can detect the imposture. The silver which is thus abstracted will be worth less than a shilling, and the manipulator has still his rupee to spend. But the operation may occupy him the greater portion of a week, during which time he might have earned two rupees by honest work.

HOW I EARNED AN ISLAND.

Enterprising Young Man: True & Co. instructed and started me. I worked steadily and made money faster than I expected to. I became able to buy an island and build a small summer hotel. If I don't succeed at that, I will go to work again at the business in which I made my money.

True & Co.: Shall we instruct and start you, reader? If we do, and if you work industriously, you will in due time be able to buy an island and build a hotel, if you wish to. Money can be earned at our new line of work, rapidly and honorably, by those of either sex, young or old, and in their own localities, wherever they live. Any one can do the work. Easy to learn. We furnish everything. No risk. You can devote your spare moments, or all your time to the work. This entirely new lead brings wonderful success to every worker. Beginners are earning from $25 to $50 per week and upwards, and more after a little experience. We can furnish you the employment—we teach you FREE. This is an age of marvelous things, and here is another great, useful, wealth-giving wonder. Great gains will reward every industrious worker. Wherever you are, and whatever you are doing, you want to know about this wonderful work at once. Delay means much money lost to you. No space to explain here, but if you will write to us, we will make all plain to you FREE. Address,
TRUE & CO., Box 400, Augusta, Maine.

MONEY

Wisely invested will soon double itself, and there are often as many elements of safety surrounding a good paying investment as one that pays small dividends. The earning capacity of every investment is the foundation of dividends. The Atkinson House Furnishing Co., of Maine, Organized in 1887, has paid its stockholders 9 semi-annual dividends of 5 per cent. each (10 per cent. a year) and is earning a handsome surplus besides. It is a buy and sell business and a safe investment for all classes. The authorized capital is $1,000,000, of which $570,000 has been paid in. To further increase the business, $80,000 of the Treasury Stock is offered until March 15th, at par, $10 per share. Price of stock will be advanced February 18th to take effect on above date. For full particulars address the company, Box 1218, Boston, Mass. or Portland, Me.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED

Easily, quickly and permanently by Dr. Taft's ASTHMALENE. You will admit after having taken a few doses that it is a specific for that terrible disease. Instead of flying to the door or window, gasping for breath, seeming as if each one would be your last, you have only to take a few doses of the ASTHMALENE when the spasm is broken, the breathing becomes easy, and you feel as if some angel of mercy had unloosed the iron grasp of the fingers of death, that had nearly deprived you of life.

IT IS AS HARMLESS AS THE FOOD YOU EAT, yet the ease with which it cures the worst cases of ASTHMA is the wonder and admiration of all who have used it. The happiest moment of your life will be when you have used a bottle of DR. TAFT'S ASTHMALENE and found it has cured you of the most distressing diseases that ever afflicted the human family. FOR BRONCHITIS it surpasses every known remedy. For sale by all druggists.

A trial bottle sent free to any one sending P. O. address who suffers from Asthma. Dr. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO., 142 State st., Rochester, N. Y.

TREASURER'S SALE

OF

IN COLUMBIA COUNTY, PENN'A.

By virtue of sundry Acts of the general Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, relating to the sale of Seated and Unseated lands in the county of Columbia, etc., for taxes due and unpaid. I will offer at public sale at the court house, in the town of Bloomsburg, on at 10 o'clock a. m., the following d'scribed pieces of land, or such part thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of taxes due and unpaid against the same, and continue the same from day to day as the same may be found necessary.

TERMS OF SALE.

The amount of taxes and costs must be paid when the land is struck off, or the sale may be void and the property put up and resold.

Pet Superstitions.

From Harper's Bazar.

How many of us are there who do not once in a while feel just a little uncomfortable when we find that we have sat thirteen at the table, or have seen the moon over our left shoulders, or have done any of the thousand and one things that are supposed to portend evil? Not that we think for a moment any misfortune really will happen in consequence of these acts, but the suggestions are not pleasant, and we wish our attention had not been called to them.

Of course we all laugh at superstitions, and think them silly, as they are, but, nevertheless, we do not get away from the unpleasant feeling.

I knew an old lady who considered it positively wicked and unchristain to give up to "foolish superstitions," but she never would allow any one to rock an empty chair in her presence. You will see people in the street who have been hurrying as if anxious to lose no time, stop on a corner, and wait five minutes for a long funeral procession to pass. They have not the courage to cross through it when an opportunity is offered, although they may waste moments that are golden to them.

The most sensible and practical people in the world will often take particular pains to skim off a patch of bubbles that has risen to the top of their tea, because some one in jest has said it is a "sure sign of money."

It always requires a distinct effort for me to pass a pin that I see lying on the sidewalk, because of that absurdly bad rhyme, which, of course, I consider nonsense—

"See a pin and pick it up,
All the day you'll have good luck."

Sometimes these omens do not go well together, and even contradict each other. For instance, one will tell you that the only lucky way to find a pin is with the head toward you; and just as you have the habit of going around looking for pins with their heads toward you, another man will say, "It is very unlucky to pick up a pin with the head toward you. The only right way is to have the point toward you, for then the luck will be "sharp."

If at the table a little salt is spilt between two people, the way to avoid a quarrel is for each to take a pinch and throw it over his left shoulder. Salt always has seemed a wonderfully powerful mineral from the time when we were small. Which of us, when a child, did not firmly believe in that old joke about putting salt on a bird's tail? I remember a curly-headed little boy in kilts who went out into the garden with a handful of salt, resolved upon catching a bird. He was very patient, and cautiously tiptoed around for a long while. Finally, a little discouraged, he went in to his mother, and said, mournfully, "Mamma, they all flew away." His mother didn't laugh at him.

When we stop to think, we wonder how real these silly superstitions, in which nobody believes, are in their influence upon our actions. We hesitate to start on a journey on Friday; we walk out in the mud rather than go under a ladder; we don't give knives or sharp instruments to our friends; and we don't do a hundred things that we might, all because, though we are not superstitious, we would rather not do what suggests anything disagreeable.

That Tired Feeling

Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine invigorates the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

A watchmaker in Nuremberg, Bavaria, has invented a device which displays on a face of a clock, one hour before it is about to run down, the warning word, "Wind."

Boils, carbuncles, and eruptions of all kinds are nature's efforts to throw off poison from the blood. This result may be accomplished much more effectually, as well as agreeably, through the proper excretory channels, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Why Our Prices for Clothing Are the Lowest in this Country

WE ARE THE LARGEST buyers of cloth and clothing materials in the world! also, sell more clothing than any other concern in the world; having stores in all of the principal cities in the United States. We buy and sell for cash. We do not make our profits all out of one store. A little from each satisfies us. We manufacture every garment we sell, you pay no middleman's profit here. We sell the best fitting ready-made clothing (for men and boys) you ever saw. Our stock this season is larger and better than ever. You are invited to look at it.

The Parisian Fashion Journals

"La Mode de Paris" and "Album des Modes," so well known as the publications giving the choicest Paris styles one month in advance of all other journals, appear to be growing just a little too popular. The demand for them is growing so rapidly that the publishers, A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14 Street, New York, have found it difficult to keep up with the increasing demand each month. They claim that the American ladies are buying their journals to such an extent that most of the newsdealers are entirely out of them by the fifth of the month. As all the plates are made in Paris by the best artists, the publishers claim that it requires considerable time to catch up with such an increased demand We agree with our lady friends that these are superior fashion journals. We suggest to them to become regular subscribers, thus making sure of receiving their journal each month, and securing that valuable book, "Dressmaking Simplified," that is given as a premium to each subscriber paying $3.50 in advance for either "La Mode de Paris" or "Album des Modes" for one year. You may place the order through your news agent, or send direct to the publishers.

SPECIALIST,

In the treatment of Chronic Diseases solicits Chronic, Obstinate cases who have obtained no relief elsewhere, and confines his practice to such cases only as are so clearly and fully developed as to make complete and positive Diagnosis without Questioning or allowing patients to make statement of their condition. This method of examination is made in order to eliminate as far as human skill and experience can do, all elements of uncertainty in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases, and inspire confidence where lost by unsuccessful if not injurious treatment from mistaken diagnosis. On this basis of Positive Diagnosis, for treatment, Dr. Clark's Experience has become strictly unlimited by a Thirty Year's Practice which in extent, variety and successful results is equalled by few and excelled by none. Patients, male and female, not cured by ordinary treatment or in doubt as to the nature of their diseases especially invited.

DR. CLARK, Originated, Teaches and Practices Positive blue mass and by confining his practice to the fully developed diseases of Men and Women has attained unusual success in the treatment of many so-called incurable maladies. If the examination is not in very strict accordance with the symptoms the patient is advised not to undergo treatment at all. The doctor can be consulted free of charge at

CLEVELAND IS THEIR CHOICE.

The Ex-President Heartily Endorsed by the Delegates to the Syracuse Convention.

CHICAGO DELEGATION INSTRUCTED TO VOTE AS A UNIT.

SYRACUSE, May 31.—Delegates to state conventions do not, as a rule, turn out so early on convention day nor in so good condition as was this morning the case with those who are here to attend the anti-mid-Winter convention. Many were late about the town and many others were busy in the congressional district caucuses. William R. Grace was busy until two o'clock this morning caucusing his delegates from New York; the Buffalo people after midnight were attending to matters of detail, while R. G. Monroe and his corps of workers on the provisional committee were busy away long into the morning. But to day all hands are apparently fresh, pushing forward the final details, and are distributing hall tickets to delegates. Soon after eleven o'clock the Buffalo Cleveland Democrats—1,000 strong—and the Tilden club of Jamestown and others formed in line, and with brass bands and drums and fifes paraded the streets.

THE LEADERS LOUDLY CHEERED.

Exactly on the tick of noon a shout went up from near the doors. Every one had turned backward to learn what the commotion was. Quickly ex-Mayor Grace and John D. Kernan were recognized, and as they came down the aisle side by side there came out rousing cheers. On their way to the stage they were again cheered. Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild and E. Ellery Anderson greeted them as they came up. When the tumult had subsided, Mr. Fairchild, as chairman of the provisional state committee, arose and advanced to the edge of the stage, but before he could speak the convention seemed to be upon its feet, upon the floor, and upon the chair with cheers.

Mr. Fairchild named John D. Kernan, of Oneida county, for temporary chairman. During Mr. Kernan's speech the fact became more and more apparent that the body he addressed was in a temper of demonstration. When the name of Grover Cleveland was mentioned the convention felt that it really had just cause for enthusiasm. The entire body seemed to be upon their feet with lifted voices, waving arms, slashing canes, waving fans and handkerchiefs, hats and umbrellas. The ladies caught the enthusiasm of the moment, and added to the scene the waving of their fans and kerchiefs. "Democratic disputes will end at Chicago," shouted forth Mr. Kernan, well along in his address, and the convention cheered.

REPUBLICAN PARTY DENOUNCED.

Following is the platform:

"We the delegates of the Democratic party of the state of New York assembled in convention at Syracuse, declare that the most urgent necessity of the Union is a radical reform in the administration of the federal government. We declare that the Democratic party alone is true to the people and alone can be trusted to administer the government of the nation in their interest. We denounce the Republican party for its abuse of power during the past four years. Obtaining in 1889 control of the executive and both branches of congress that party immediately entered upon a course of extravagance, tyranny and fraud. It found the treasury in receipt of a large and increasing surplus.

"But disregarding the duty thus imposed upon it to relieve the people from the oppressive tariff taxation so long endured, the Republican party, through its "billion dollar congress" enacted appropriations amounting to five hundred millions annually. It made most of these appropriations permanent, so that they cannot be reduced by the

of representatives without the concurrence of the Republican senate. It turned a magnificant surplus into an imminent deficiency. It went to lengths of class legislation before unheard of by enacting its McKinley bill. It deprived the state of New York of its just representation in congress and in the electoral college by a fraudulent census. It displayed an utter contempt for economy and honesty by its fradulent administration of the pension office. It reached a climax of partisan oppression in its strenuous endeavor to enact into law the infamous force bill. Contrasted with this history of extravagance and oppression we recall with ever increasing satisfaction the wise and prudent Democratic administration of Grover Cleveland. He pointed out in his message of December 1887, the true policy of the Democratic party and through temporary defeat, brought it to the magnificent victories of 1890 and 1891. All this has been remembered by our brethren in other states.

M'KINLEY TARIFF CONDEMNED.

"We denounce the McKinley tariff; we declare that a tariff is a tax: 'that all taxation is a burden; that it should never exceed the necessities of a government wisely and economically administered. We condemn the present tariff, not only because it is excessive and restrictive of the commercial development of the country, but because it has been enacted in the interest of a few at the expense and for the oppression of the mass of the people. It is class legislation. It does not increase the receipts of wage earners, but it turns over to the protected manufacturers, ever becoming more and more repacious the federal treasury and the taxing power of the federal government to use for their own benefit, and it leaves it to them to decide whether or not the wage earners they employ shall receive any part of this enormous bounty. It is an inexhaustible source of corruption, a constant menace to free government. It has sapped the independence of industry and induces men to seek to grow rich by official favoritism rather than by their own exertions. An inevitable consequence is that the class in receipt of these vast pecuniary favors should seek to upon the government by supplying, in practically unlimited amounts the money with which an electorate may be corrupted and popular government destroyed. The recent change in the policy of the Republican party from a general system of high tariff taxes to the reciprocity system is an admission of the vast benefits to be derived from the extension of our foreign trade and of the justice of the tariff reform principles.

"We approve the use of both gold and silver as money and we demand that all dollars, whether gold or silver, shall be equal in value to each other in fact as well as by declaration of the law. We are opposed to the free coinage of silver by the United States alone at the existing rate of sixteen to one because we believe free coinage at that rate will result in the immediate disappearance of gold from the business of this country, the use of silver with certain loss to every wage earner and every savings bank depositor with the impairment of credit and disastrous disturbance of business of every kind.

NECESSITY OF PARTY ORGANIZATION.

"We demand the repeal of the Sherman silver law of 1880 as an obstruction of international bi-metalism and because it is rapidly bringing this country to silver mono-metalism with all of its attending evils.

"We recognize the necessity of an organization through which the party may direct its energies; but when such an organization claims to be the party itself instead of its instrument when it expresses the voice and misrepresents the desire of the party; when it calls the caucuses at unaccustomed seasons, and upon insufficient notice, so then regardless of the votes cast, it placed upon the convention roll and admits to the convention only those who, without respect to the voice or wishes of their constituents, will agree in advance to support the schemes and oligarchy it has established; when it gives notice in advance that they who will not agree to be as subservient will not be admitted, then it ceases to be representative, creates discontent rouses resentment and imperils the duty of the original elements of the party to take such notice as will restore it to just relations between its members and their agents.

CONFIDENCE IN CLEVELAND.

"The Democratic party retains unshaken confidence in the ability and of the integrity of Grover Gleveland and in his devotion to public duty; he is the choice of an overwhelming majority of the people of New York, and the country may rely with confidence on his ability to carry the state triumphantly in November. We believe that by nominating him to lead the party in the approaching contest for the presidency the national convention will carry out the almost unanimous wish of the party and best consult the welfare of the country. We pledge ourselves to support the candidates nominated in Chicago The delegation chosen by this convention is instructed to act as a unit according to the determination of a majority of the members"

The denouncement of the mid-Winter convention was greeted with tremendous applause. The reference to Grover Cleveland as being able to carry New York state also moved the convention to its feet and brought on a storm of applause.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 1892.

Mr. Harrison is the first, and it is hoped that he is the last President who ever personally took charge of the canvas to get himself renominated, and it is only since the Blaine boom assumed such dangerous proportions that Mr. Harrison so far forgot his dignity as to do so. But there is no question about his having taken the management of his fight into his own hands. Whether this was because he doubted the honesty or the political sagacity of Secretaries Elkins and Foster, or because he feared they would carry out their threats of revolt if he transferred the management of his affairs to John C. New, is more than your correspondent cares to say, but whatever the cause, Mr. Harrison is personally bossing his own political machine, telegrams signed by him are being sent to the shaky delegates among the "instructed", and he is to be kept in instantaneous communication with the Minneapolis convention by means of a private telegraph wire.

Since assuming command Mr. Harrison has instructed his fighting men to hit every Blaine head that comes up, and his supporters are now openly threatening that if they cannot nominate Harrison they can at least prevent the nomination of Blaine without a struggle so bitter that he cannot accept without practically confessing that his February letter was but a shrewd move toward getting the nomination. Ex-Czar Reed, who has made up with Mr. Blaine, with whom he has been on bad terms for years, is shedding no tears over the situation, as it is on the programme for him to fall heir to the Blaine strength, if for any reason Mr. Blaine shall decide not to make use of it for himself, he also expects to be made temporary chairman of the convention.

Representative Stevens, of Massachusetts, has constructed a tariff bill, covering the metal schedule, which is the result of many consultations with his democratic colleagues on the House Ways and Means committee. It places iron ore and scrap iron on the free list, and about cuts in half the duties on manufactured metal, as they are in the McKinley law. The bill is based upon the report of the U. S. Commissioner of Labor, upon the comparative cost of manufactures of iron and steel in the United States and Europe, and Mr. Stevens says the proposed duties are more than sufficient to cover the whole difference between the cost of articles manufactured in the United States and in Great Britain. More than that no manufacturer has even the shadow of a right to claim.

Representative Hatch's motion to take up the anti-option bill, notwithstanding the decision of the democratic caucus that the appropriation bills were to have exclusive right of way until they are all disposed of, received the solid support of the republicans of the House and enough democratic votes to make a tie vote on the motion. Whether Mr. Hatch will have better luck when he makes another trial, is a question—he undoubtedly thinks he will, and that the bill will be passed by the House before adjournment.

Representative Johnson, of Indiana, has been heartily cursed, on the quiet, by the republican leaders for having given away the sentiments of Mr. Harrison on the force bill. They say that if Johnson had the sense he was born with he would have known that he could not have possibly pleased the democrats better than by making such a speech as he made last week. Some of them pretend to believe that Johnson was "put up" to it by some wicked democrat in search of campaign material for his party. Whatever the cause, the party got the campaign ammunition.

The Senate will give the country some silver talk for a while, but for just how long it would be difficult to say, in the discussion of Senator Stewart's free coinage bill, which was some time ago adversely reported by the Finance committee, and which is to come up to morrow as the "unfinished business". Senators opposed to the bill admit that it will pass by a majority of from 1 to 5 if it is allowed to reach a vote, and there is a suspicion aloft that they do not propose to allow it to come to a vote.

Mr. Blaine is again at his Washington residence, but is not doing any talking, at least that is what the favored few who get to see him say. He listens and smiles, but says not a word that can by any possible twisting be made to give even the slightest indication of how he regards the efforts that are being made for him, or whether he will accept if they are successful in getting him nominated.

Secretary Elkins is sulking. He was to have gone to Rochester with Mr. Harrison, but at the last minute he refused positively to go. He is suspected of having a leaning toward Blaine, and he knows it, which causes him to magnify the significance of little things.

From a national standpoint it would have been difficult for the Governor of Virginia to have selected a more satisfactory successor to the late Senator Barbour than Gen. Eppa Hunton.

Judge John H. Orvis, of Bellefonte, does not have a high opinion of the value of Tammany's advice. Though one of the leading Democrats of the State, he was not a candidate for delegate to the National Convention and will not go to Chicago. In discussing Presidential politics the other day the Judge said: "Nine-tenths of the Democracy are in favor of the nomination of Mr. Cleveland. The conventions of the party everywhere have embodied in their resolutions the principles contained in Mr. Cleveland's message. If we can't elect him we can't elect any man. When we went to St. Louis in 1876, Tammany, headed by John Kelly, met us there and said that Tilden could not carry New York. He did and was honestly elected. At Cincinnati in 1880 Tammany wanted Hancock, and we listened to them and were beaten at the election. In 1884 Tammany came to Chicago telling us that Cleveland could not carry New York, but he was nominated and elected. Tammany went to St. Louis united and enthusiastic for Cleveland, but he was defeated. These lessons teach us that Tammany does not represent the Democracy of New York. Cleveland went in on the cry: 'Turn the rascals out,' and he is being opposed because in turning the Republican rascals out he did not put Democratic rascals in. Cleveland represents the principles that will win in the next campaign, and ought to be nominated."

Blood poisoned by diphtheria, the Grip, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, etc., is made pure and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla

There is a mistaken impression abroad that "Tales From Town Topics." although clever, bright, witty and not unfrequently wise, are a little too much akin to modern French literature to be proper reading for a serious people. This is a mistake, as any one will discover who reads the stories in question. It is true that they avoid the absolute drab-colored prudery of the modern English short story, but in evading this shoal they do not run on the equally offensive one of modern French license. The fourth volume of this series is just published, and its contents show that the art and talent of the writer who produced the first volumes are by no means abated. Town Topics: 21 West Twenty-third street, New York.

Ricketts, lying on the line between Sullivan and Wyoming counties is at present the frontier post of the army of lumbermen that are fast subduing what was, but a few years ago, an almost unexplored wilderness. Trexler Turrell & Co. have one of the best saw mill in the State at that place and the rate at which the big logs are turned into marketable lumber almost takes your breath away. What Ricketts needs at present is a good hotel.—Review.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

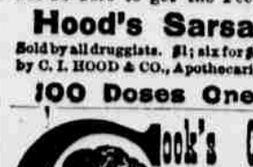
Hood's Sarsaparilla Is Peculiar to Itself

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine,

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar



Cook's Cotton Root COMPOUND.

A recent discovery by an old physician. Successfully used monthly by thousands of ladies. Is the only perfectly safe and reliable medicine discovered. Beware of unprincipled druggists who offer inferior medicines in place of this. Ask for COOK'S COTTON ROOT COMPOUND, take no substitute, or inclose $1 and 6 cents in postage in letter, and we will send, sealed, by return mail. Full sealed particulars in plain envelope, to ladies only, 2 stamps. Address POND LILY COMPANY, No. 3 Fisher Block, Detroit, Mich.

COPYRIGHT 1891

The best thing to do is this: when you're suffering from Sick or Bilious Headaches, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the Liver, Stomach, or Bowels, get something that relieves promptly and cures permanently. Don't shock the system with the ordinary pills—get Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

They're the smallest, for one thing (but that's a great thing), and the easiest to take.

They're the best, for they work in Nature's own way—mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively.

They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

What more can you ask?

But don't get something that the dealer says is "just as good." It may be better for him, but it's pretty certain to be worse for you.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1892.

Geo. P. Ringler has laid a concrete pavement in front of his drug store.

Mrs. Marshall, sister of Mrs. Amos Buckalew, whose illness we announced last week, died at Hazleton last Monday morning.

The new school board will organize next Monday evening. The only change in the Board will be that William Chrisman goes out, and R. R. Little goes in.

C. Strauser, tenant on E. H. Little's farm makes regular daily trip to Bloomsburg, and sells milk at 5 cents a quart. It is pure and comes form Mr. Little's Holstein herd. A new milk wagon has been placed on the road.

It is No Longer Green's.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE WELL-KNOWN HOTEL GOING TO EUROPE.

Thomas H. Green, one of the oldest and best-known hotel-keepers in Philadelphia, relinquished his connection at 12 o'clock last Tuesday night with Green's Hotel, Eighth and Chestnut, with which he has been connected for nearly a quarter of a century. In a short time he will sail for the Old World and visit nearly all the places of interest in Europe. Since the death of Mrs. Green, who was so widely known among the poor and the different charitable institutions, Mr. Green has led a rather retired life. To old St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fourth and Spruce streets, he has given a magnificent memorial to his beloved wife. The work, which is known as the "Pieta" will be one of the finest pieces of art in this country. It is a representation of Christ in the arms of the Virgin after he was taken down from the cross. The work is at present being made in Rome and is an exact copy of the Pieta by Bernini now in the Church of St. John Lateran at Rome. The figures will be nearly life size. It will be placed in a splendid shrine in the rear of the church, right over the remains of Mrs. Green. Mr. Green has given Rev. McDermott the supervision of the memorial. Father McDermott will go to Rome for the Pieta about the middle of July.

Mrs. Green was a relative of Mrs. U. S. Lutz, formerly of Bloomsburg.

A Great Fruit Year.

California green fruit made its first appearance this season in New York markets last Monday afternoon. A carload containing cherries of every variety, apricots and plums, left Sacramento May 23, making a quick trip in seven days. The average length of time for California fruit to reach here last year was fourteen days. By an arrangement with the Southern Pacific Railroad Company fruit can be delivered in one half the ordinary time, and a saving of 20 per cent. to consumers will thus be effected.

The fruit crops in the Western and Southern States promise to be very large this season.

"In 1891 the foreign importations of prunes and raisins amounted to 9,000,000 and 18,000,000 pounds respectively," was said yesterday. "Compare that with the previous year's importations of 61,000,000 pounds of prunes and 44,000,000 pounds of raisins, and then remember that this country supplied the deficit in the following year from its own fruit ranches. Last year 13,000,000 pounds of California green fruits were sold in New York. The crop is so good at the present time in the Golden State that possibly 20,000,000 pounds of fruit will be forwarded there under the new transportation conditions. The consequence will be that the consumers will get fruit in a better state and at lower prices than heretofore.

"There is a tremendous acreage coming into bearing that will furnish a million pounds for shipment this year.

EXPLOSION IN A MINE.

TWO MEN ARE KILLED AND SEVERAL TERRIBLY INJURED.

WILKES BARRE, May 31.—A terrible explosion of gas occured in the Sand-drift Colliery of the West End Company at Mocanaqua, a few miles below here, at 7:30 this morning, resulting in the instant death of Fire-boss John Protheroe, the subsequent death of another miner, the fatal injury of two and the serious injury of half a dozen miners and laborers. The mine had been idle Sunday and Monday, and when the gang entered this morning Fire-boss Protheroe went ahead with a safety lamp as a precautionary measure. Turning up the Sand-drift gangway, which has a pitch of 45 degrees, he was out of the sight of the men.

The explosion came without warning, and Protheroe's disfigured and blackened corpse was hurled down the incline at the feet of the men. The concussion blew fragments of timbers in all directions, and blew several of the men off their feet a distance away or dashed them violently against the brattices.

Foreman Protheroe was 47 years old and leaves a wife and four children. John Walters, aged 20, died at 11 o'clock from bruises and internal injuries. The following are fatally bruised and burned: Henry Ritter, aged 47; Charles Ritter, aged 20; Wallace Deitrich, aged 37; William Hooper, Frank Deitrich, Mike Zoubie and the Everhart brothers are injured badly. The mine is a shallow one, and Mine Inspector Williams says it was unusually free from gas. Probably during the two days' suspension of work a blower or vent in the coal seam had opened and this released a pocket of gas, the presence of which was entirely unsuspected.

Bottler's Rights Defined.

The question as to whether a bottler has a right to bottle spirituous liquors was decided by Judge Bregy of Philadelphia in discharging the rule taken by the Law and Order Society against Leiber, whose license as a bottler at 502 North Eighth Street they sought to have revoked for an alleged violation of the law. Lewis D. Vail contended that the law confined the bottler to brewed and malt liquors, while John H. Fow and Ex-Judge Elcock, on behalf of Leiber, urged that the Legislature intended that bottlers could bottle and sell all kinds of liquors.

Judge Bregy said it was important that this case should be decided before the license expired on Tuesday next. He said there was no adjudicated case which touched this matter.

There is no legal definition in the act of Assembly as to what a bottler is. Driven to a common sense definition, the Court thought that a bottler was a person who bottles liquors. According to the act of 1887, he thought a bottler has a right to bottle spirituous, vinous and malt liquors and sell them in certain quantities, and the act of 1891 says nothing about prohibiting the sale of spirituous and vinous liquors which he has put up in bottles himself. He thought that where two acts could run together without inconsistency they ought to be so construed. Otherwise, storekeepers and manufacturers would be effected. Therefore, taking that view of it, a bottler would have a right to bottle spirituous and vinous liquors. Bottlers pay $300 for a license and Wholesalers and storekeepers $1,000. The storekeeper manifestly has some rights where a bottler has none. He could sell the goods of other people.

Catarrh Can't Be Cured

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

Department of Public Instruction.

Dr. Waller has issued the following circular:

TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS:

What was the length of the annual school term in your district last year?

Were your schools open seven, eight, nine or ten months, or were they closed by the action of your Board at the end of the minimum term of six months?

If your Board made provision for only a minimum term of six months last year, or at any time since you have been a director, what was the motive that governed the majority of the members in taking such action?

Was the education of the children duly considered and emphasized as an imperative duty on the part of the Board and the District before deciding to close the schools at the end of a short term?

What excuse was offered for closing the schools of your district at the end of a short term of six or seven months with a low tax rate for school purposes?

Do you favor a policy, on the plea of economy, that virtually deprives the children of school privileges half the year and places a barrier in their way to advancement and which prevents them from obtaining such an education as the public schools afford, or are you in favor of a progressive policy in the administration of the office of school director, a policy that will result in having good schools and longer school terms, and well qualified teachers honestly compensated for their services?

These are pertinent questions for your consideration in view of the fact that your voice and vote will determine the policy to be pursued by your Board in the operation of the schools of your district for the ensuing year.

The State has generously increased the appropriation for the support of the public schools to five million dollars.

If all directors have a proper conception of the responsible duties which they are called upon to discharge and a due regard for the welfare of the children, and the Commonwealth, every boy and girl of legal school age in Pennsylvania will have the privilege of attending school a continuous school term of not less than eight months during the school year beginning on the first Monday of June, 1892.

"Peter Piper Picked a peck of Pickled Peppers," was a line of alliterative nonsense, that the children used to say. Nowdays they can practice on the Perfect, Painless Powerful Properties of Pierce's Pleasant Pugative Pellets. It will impress a fact which will be useful to know. These Pellets cure sick headache, billious attacks, indigestion, constipation and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They are tiny, sugar coated pills, easy to take, and, as a laxative, one is sufficient for a dose. No more groans and gripes from the old drastic remedies! Pierce's Purgative Pellets are as painless as they are perfect in their effects.

To Purify Water.

A simple mode of purifying water is to sprinkle a tablespoonful of powdered alum into a hogshead of water, stirring the water at the same time. This will precipitate all the impurities to the bottom after being allowed a few hours to settle, and will so purify it that it will be found to possess nearly all the freshness and clearness of the finest spring water. A pailful containing four gallons may be purified in this manner by using no more than a teaspoonful of the alum.

The Returns Coming in.

Tuesday's mail brought a batch of printed letters to the Benton postoffice from the picture company whose canvassers recently did up this town in fine style, and these letters were addressed to those who paid their fifty cents in advance and gave a sample photo to have a crayon portrait made. Now the tune they sing is a different one. Hear it. "The portrait we make free of charge, providing you buy a frame of us. Crayon portraits without frames cannot be delivered. We have forty styles of frames." Here they quote prices from $4 to $10, and to get your portrait and frame you must send them $2.00 when they will be shipped C. O. D., for balance. The cheeky part of the letter is in its winding up: "If our terms are not satisfactory we will return to you your small photo on receipt of a five cent stamp and retain your crayon for a sample copy." This is a deliberate lie. The crayon portrait has not been made, nor will it be until you purchase a frame of them. And while they demand additional payment for the return of the photo, they are as silent as the grave concerning the fifty cents paid them in advance. But no doubt there are times when "suckers" will bite, pay more for what could be gotten nearer home for one third the price and then complain in a doleful strain of hard times. Selah!—Benton Argus.

A dispatch from Harrisburg says general order No. 12 has been issued from the Adjutant General's office discontinuing the practice of dishonorably discharging enlisted men from the National Guard for breaches of discipline, without sentence of court martial, and gives the opinion of the Judge Advocate General as follows:

That discharges authorized by section 34 of the code are intended to be honorable, have no punitory effect and are therefore not obstacles to re-enlistments, and second that dishonorable discharges under both Federal and State laws are intended for punishments and can only be the result of an execution the approved sentence of general court martial and publishes the following order: It is hereby ordered that hereafter summary discharge by authority of Section 34 of the military code shall be for causes not subject to the jurisdiction of court martial as prescribed by law, and shall be published in order that the reasons therefor may be known and shall be affirmatively designed as honorary discharges.

A Bullet in His Abdomen.

Horace Dinsmore, a boy of about fourteen years, oldest son of J. A. Dinsmore, met with a serious accident on Thursday afternoon last. He was carelessly handling a 22 calibre revolver, one of those cheap, four barrelled affairs, which he had obtained through a dicker with a playmate, when the weapon was discharged the bullet entering the lower part of his abdomen. Dr. Vastine was called in and upon probing for the ball was unable to find it, but dressed the wound and fixed the little patient up comfortably. As yet no alarming symptoms have manifested themselves, and the chances are that the boy will pull through all right. He stood the ordeal of probing like a major, and displayed a deal of pluck throughout the operation.—Catawissa News-Item.

Congenial Occupation.

"And you say my son is a failure here at the university, and I might as well take him away?"

"Yes, it is not worth while to waste a $5,000 education on a five dollar boy."

"What seems to be the trouble with him?"

"I do not wish to pain you, sir, but he lacks mind. He has neither memory nor reasoning power. It is impossible for him to collect his thoughts and to either speak or to write logically."

"What, then, can I do with him? Will you not help me with your advice?"

"You are aware, sir, that there are few things for which such a lad is fit, but I would suggest that you might put him to writing tariff editorials for a Republican newspaper."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Benny's "Dark Horse" Nightmare.

President Harrison would be willing to see some of the Republican conventions do a little less in the indorsing way of his administration if they would instruct more delegates to vote for him at Minneapolis. The New England states and about all the larger and more influential ones will come without any assurance that they will stand by Benjamin. The bosses will all be there looking eagerly for a dark horse. The president may well suspect that there is danger for him in the situation.—St. Paul Globe.

It Pleases Democrats.

The Connecticut Republicans point with pride to the administration of their holdover governor, and put him at the head of their delegation to Minneapolis. The Democrats should not object to these proceedings. It ought to butter their parsnips in November.—Boston Herald.

Somersaultist Cullom.

Shelby M. Cullom is the political Paul of Illinois. On his way to Tarsus to persecute Harrison he saw a light whose name was Tanner, and the result was a change of heart that bears all the outward marks and signs of a complete somersault.—Chicago Mail.

But He Hasn't Many Inches.

In the Wisconsin convention President Harrison was described as being "every inch a man." The same description might with equal propriety apply to the late Colonel Tom Thumb, who was not conspicuous for the number of his inches.—New York World.

A Trio of Schemers.

There is some scheming to defeat Harrison's nomination. His re-election will be easily prevented without any special scheming. It would take from them all interest in the game of politics if Quay, Platt and Clarkson could not scheme.—Kansas City Times.

An "Admission" from Shepard.

You see funny things in the press dispatches sometimes. Just now they are making Colonel Elliott Shepard's "Wail in Distress" "admit" Harrison's renomination on the first ballot after an examination of Lige Halford's figures.—St. Louis Republic.

Beauties of the Tariff.

How beautifully the McKinley tariff adjusts itself to the luxurious tendency of the times! There is, for example, an 11 per cent. tax on diamonds and an 80 per cent. tax on clothing.—Philadelphia Record.

Try the Force Bill.

Powell Clayton says a good many of the negroes in Arkansas are voting with the Democrats. All the more need of a force bill to compel them to vote the Republican ticket.—St. Paul Globe.

"Iceberg and Defeat," the Slogan.

What if all the uninstructed delegates to Minneapolis were to suddenly rise from the benches and say John Sherman is the man to be next president?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

It Reads Queerly.

Reed and Reid is one of the Republican tickets suggested, merely suggested—that's all. The ticket, of course, will be Harrison and Somebody.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

The Democrats Will Dance.

Fifer may make the music, but the Democrats will dance when the returns come in from Illinois next November.—St. Louis Republic.

Scarcely.

Chauncey Mitchell Depew goes to Minneapolis as a delegate at large. Will Colonel Elliott boom him again as the "farmer's friend?"—Omaha World-Herald.

Two Eyes to the Future.

The two Republican congressmen from South Dakota had an eye to the future in bolting their party to vote for free twine.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

The Election Will Sicken Him.

If the Blaine craze continues to spread it will be President Harrison's turn to be troubled with nausea.—Chicago Mail.

Shouting for the Wrong Man.

The Harrison delegates will go to Minneapolis shouting—but they'll be shouting for Blaine.—Columbus (O.) Post.

TIN PLATE HUMBUG.

THE CLAIMS OF THE M'KINLEY BILLERS RUDELY PUNCTURED.

American Tin Is Nothing More Than Dipped Iron—The Canning Industry Seriously Injured—The Industry "Fostered" for the Benefit of Monopolists.

We have a rather impressive plate of sheet tin before us as we write. It is of oblong shape, of easily handled size, and handsomely coated. We are asked to believe that this is American tin. The iron that forms its base is probably American. Where the tin which makes its coating came from it is perhaps not so easy to say, but we are disposed strongly to hold that it was not mined in this country. That there is any proof in it that the tin manufacture on any scale of importance has been established in this country; that we owe to the McKinley bill aid in the manufacture of tin to any considerable extent here, or that, if we are to have it, it will be at a less sacrifice than paying a good deal more money for our tin than if legislation had let this matter alone, we do not believe.

As near as we can get to the true inwardness of this tin plate matter, the case seems to be about this: A remunerative and healthy business was being carried on in the manufacture of tin plate for the American markets. The great bulk of it was consumed in the making of tin cans for the preservation of fruit and the packing of other material that can be conveniently handled and kept in this way. Nobody suffered from it; many were benefited. There was little inducement to change the conditions on which it was conducted—little desire to do so. It is a victim to the cupidity of certain men who did desire to call in the government to help them in their business in another production. Certain Pennsylvanians thought there was a way to establish a sheet iron manufacture. They would have been willing to let this tin production alone, so far as it applies to canning, but it was in the way of their sheet iron business. They used tinned sheet iron plates for roofing purposes, and wanted to get a monopoly of that business.

We are told that we are manufacturing tin plate. So we are, such tin plate as that we have made the occasion of this article. It is composed of iron dipped in tin. It can be manufactured almost anywhere. The chief thing necessary is to procure a sheet of iron and dip it in a solution of tin, and the tin plate is made. But those who make it, and those who vaunt themselves upon having introduced a new article into American production, are very careful not to state that it is not a new article of American production; it has been produced here for a period of about fourteen years.

This is roof tin. Probably considerable mischief would have been done by the effort to set up one or two millionaires in Pennsylvania through the aid of government legislation in this business of making plate for roof tin, but not a tithe as much as if those desiring to engage in it could have been induced to let canning tin alone. To afford an excuse for this monopoly there was a great parade about introducing the tin manufacture generally in America. The great bulk of the tin manufacture here is the tin canning branch of it. This tin, such as we have been considering in this article, does not apply there at all. The plates that form its basis are steel, not iron. They are rolled to a thinness very much less than this show tin which is used for political purposes. They have not been made to any extent in this country. Of the nineteen firms in this tin dipping business, which the McKinley bill claims to be its trophy, but which existed independent of it before it was passed, but four make these plates at all; the bulk are made of iron, while but few make the steel plates that are necessary to the tin canning manufacture.

It is possible to force the country into its production with sufficiently high duties; almost anything might be achieved in this way; but the effort toward it now is a grievous wrong to the tin canning industry and an inexcusable burden to the great bulk of the American people.—Boston Herald.

A Tariff Lesson for Brooklyn.

Brooklyn will expend about $1,000,000 this year paving her streets with Belgian block granite. The tariff on granite is 40 per cent. ad valorem. It is believed that the citizens of Brooklyn will pay that tariff and that it will be recognized as a tax.—Kansas City Times.

A Great Candidate.

"Thousand Lie" Pavey was, next to Fifer, the easiest man nominated at Springfield. He has been growing in Republican grace ever since he bore witness to his own mendacity.—St. Louis Republic.

Ingalls Wants Office Again.

Senator Ingalls goes as a delegate to the Minneapolis convention. Will he help to nominate "the man whose administration has made that of ex-Mr. Hayes respectable?"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Sherman Will Get Even.

Senator Sherman will make the Harrison nominating speech at Minneapolis. This is Sherman's way of getting back at Alger for capturing those colored delegates four years ago.—Omaha World-Herald.

A House Divided Against Itself.

Talking Sherman for president now, eh? When they get the official house nicely divided against itself they will rush into the breach with a sub rosa choice. Watch them.—Columbus (O.) Post.

No Flies on Icebergs.

"There would be no flies on a presidential ticket headed by John Sherman," says an enthusiastic but vulgar rural exchange. But who ever saw flies on an iceberg?—Chicago Times.

A GOOD MAN.

Judge Altgeld, Democratic Candidate for Governor of Illinois.

The man who will probably succeed Hon. Joseph W. Fifer as governor of Illinois is Judge John P. Altgeld, of Chicago, whom the Democrats have selected as their standard bearer in the gubernatorial campaign. Judge Altgeld has the reputation of having overcome almost insurmountable obstacles during his lifetime, and the Democrats of Illinois believe that he will be able to upset a certain obstacle known as "Private Joe" Fifer. The judge is a self made man. He has risen from poverty to wealth. He served as a soldier in the Union army, and was not admitted to the bar until 1872. Judge Altgeld located in Chicago in 1875. He was born in the duchy of Nassau, Germany, in 1847, and was reared on a farm near Mansfield, O., to which place his parents had emigrated when the embryonic governor was but one year old.

Harrison's Record.

The New York World summarizes Harrison's administration of office:

"Raum's pull, Dudley's blocks-of-five letter, the degradation of the bench by the promotion of Woods, the looting of the civil service, cabinet protected ballot box stuffing in Baltimore, Wanamaker's purchase of a cabinet office and Harrison's confessed failure to keep his civil service pledges."

There the record stands, startling if true, and true though startling.—Columbus (O.) Post.

Usurper Bulkeley's Nerve.

We credit Senator Hawley with a better sense of the fitness of things than would be indicated by a serious effort on his part to bring forward Governor Bulkeley, of Connecticut, for the second place on the Republican national ticket. The character of Governor Bulkeley's claim to his present office is not such as to commend him to the favorable consideration of the country at large. A holdover governor and a favorite son are not synonymous terms.—Boston Herald.

Beware of "Little" Issues.

Party success is the success of tariff reform. Democrats cannot safely forget that. The enemy will lead them off on little issues if possible. Nothing but the Democratic party can lift the burden, and whatever saps its strength in local elections takes from its national energy.—Kansas City Times.

Noble Only in Name.

Secretary Noble wishes to be considered more respectable than the Raums and the Dudleys, but when it comes to preventing one of them from getting caught he lets go his grasp on respectability and uses both hands for clinging to his office.—St. Louis Republic.

Reed, the Interminable.

Tom Reed now threatens to roil the political waters a little more by announcing himself as a presidential candidate. Mr. Reed must think that the Republican party can stand everything.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

Quay in His Own Woods.

The latest eastern joke is to talk about Quaysylvania. The vivacious statesman probably reflects that if the state is indeed Quay's woods he has no end of trouble getting out of them.—Kansas City Star.

But Nobody "Speaks for" Ben.

It may relieve the anxiety of the country to learn that all of those gentlemen who are "authorized to speak for Blaine" are not delegates to the Minneapolis convention.—Washington Post.

And Wool Remains Low.

In the face of depleted stocks there are yet no evidences of an advancing tendency in the price of wool. Oh, Brer McKinley! This is too, too bad!—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Bad Pun, Great Truth.

A man no longer needs to be a runner from Runnerville in order to get an office under a Republican administration. But they needs must be good pay sirs.—Omaha World-Herald.

And Then "Knifing in November."

Thomas C. Platt is announced for the star part in the great Minneapolis melodrama, "Foiled; or, How I Didn't Beat Harrison."—Chicago Mail.

His November Bust.

A bust of President Harrison is on exhibition in New York. His most realistic bust will be exhibited in November.—St. Paul Globe.

Had Carnegie in His Mind.

Fifer calls the protective system "munificent." He was thinking of Carnegie and his profits.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Benny's "Popularity."

The applause is for Harrison, but the cheers and the tiger are still for Blaine.—Boston Herald.

Strange, but True.

Strange, that Mr. Blaine's good health should make another man sick.—Columbus (O.) Post.

"CAN I ASSIST YOU, MADAM?"

This is an every-day occurrence: she is taken with that "all-gone" or faint feeling, while calling or shopping. The cause of this feeling is some derangement, weakness, or irregularity incident to her sex. It matters little from what cause it may arise; instant relief may always be found by using

HERE WHAT THEY SAY:

They have used DEERING BINDESR and know their WORTH.

WE PUBLISH BELOW A TESTIMONIAL FROM A FEW OF THE ENTERPRISING FARMERS OF OUR COUNTY, TO WHOM WE SOLD -DEERING BINDERS- LAST YEAR.

We the undersigned, farmers in Columbia County, each having bought of D. W. KITCHEN in 1891, a Deering Junior Steel Binder, with great pleasure recommend it to all farmers who may contemplate purchasing a Binder.

We have subjected our Binder to every test, and do not hesitate in pronouncing the Deering Binder far superior to any other machine we have ever seen.

For simplicity, workmanship and material it is unsurpassed. Its lightness of draft, durability and immense capacity are unquestionable and we feel confident in saying that to-day the Deering Junior Steel Binder leads the world.

We wish the Deering Binder unbounded success.

Married in brown, you will live out of town.

Married in white, you have chosen all right.

Married in black, you will wish yourself back.

Married in red, you will wish yourself dead.

Married in yellow, ashamed of your fellow.

Married in pearl, you will live in a whirl.

Married in blue, he will always be true.

Married in pink, your spirits will sink.

Married in gray, you will go far away.

Married in green, ashamed to be seen.

Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

Pittsburgh, Pa. GEO. A. MACBETH CO.

Will Blaine Stand?

The question no longer is, Will Mr. Blaine be nominated? but, Will he stand?

If the man from Maine shall maintain his attitude of the past ten days—or since The World first announced the plan of the anti-Harrison leaders to nominate him in spite of everything—that plan will probably be carried out.

Silence will be accepted as consent!—it is already so accepted. And if the Republican party can have Blaine as its candidate it is scarcely conceivable that it will not take him, even by constraint.

And yet there is a doubt. After putting aside a nomination which he might have had in 1888, and declining to be considered a candidate in February last, the question is asked how Mr. Blaine can consent to accept now a nomination that must be fought for and that will leave bitter heart-burnings behind.

Does Mr. Blaine simply covet the unique distinction of being the only American who ever declined a Presidential nomination actually tendered?

Or are the Big Four—Reed, Platt, Quay, and Clarkson—using Mr. Blaine as a cover behind which to rally an opposition that may be utilized eventually for another—for Reed himself, or Sherman, Allison, or Lincoln?

What are the little games inside the the big game?—World.

Judge Sadler, of Carlisle, last week filed an opinion which is of interest to all soldiers holding peddling license. The opinion is in the matter of John Webbert versus the county of Cumberland. It seems that Webbert has a soldier license and on that has been purchasing butter, eggs and poultry and selling them. The County Treasurer then comes and demands a huckster's license of $12. This was paid by Webbert and he then brought suit against the county to recover. A case stated was made and Judge Sadler decided against the plaintiff and directed the judgment with cost be entered for the defendant, the county. This decision was made on the ground that the act of Assembly in regard to the soldier's license only permitted the holder to peddle, hawk and vend;" but did not give him "any right to purchase or barter for butter, eggs or poultry."

How to Tell a Good Horse.

"I never ask about a horse's traits," said a horse buyer the other day. "All I want is a good square look in the face. Once in a hundred times I may mistake the head, but not oftener than that, I believe."

It doesn't require an expert to read horses' faces, either. A person who has never handled a horse can saunter down Broadway any afternoon and point out the good, docile family carriage horse, the biting horse, the treacherous animal, the one likely to kick or run at any moment, or the proud, high-spirited horse that may be dangerous and yet not vicious in the least.

The kicking horse can nearly always be singled out by the vicious gleam in his eye which stamps him a born kicker. Of all horses, though, the miserable looking horse attracts most attention. This is the horse persecuted by the check-rein. Like men and women who wear shoes too small, he shows the outward evidence of misery. Many good-natured horses, horseman say, have been made fretful and vicious by being enslaved by the infamous and cruel check-rein. There are horses broken down by long and continuous service for man, which show sad facial expression.

Fixed Stars.

There are no fixed stars in the firmament of mankind. Each shines for the time appointed, and is then blotted out to make room for others. But the heavens never grow wholly dark, for, as one great light fades, flickers, and is extinguished, another appears in an unexpected quarter. Every age has its exceptional men, and though it may seem impossible to fill their places when they depart, it somehow happens—such is the richness of human nature—that their places are always filled.

A Little Girls Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last winter she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones".—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. A. Klein's Drugstore.

Dr. Stanley's Triumph.

New energy, new vitality, new life. The worn-out feeling; defective memory, sluggish brain, the nervousness, the impaired digestion, the impure blood, the back-ache, the dizziness, the despondency and general good-for-nothing feeling that result from worry, excessive mental work with insufficient exercise, irregular habits or over exercise of special functions CAN BE OVERCOME. Dr. Stanley's BRAINOLINE supplies the want. While long special Study was devoted to these conditions, the discovery of this great remedy was largely accidental. It WILL POSITIVELY CURE. It restores to both men and women the proper enjoyment and usefulness of life. It can harm no one. It strengthens without stimulating, so does without depressing. Benefit is quickly realized and hence it is cheap. By mail $1; six packages, enough for almost any case, $5. Send or call for circular. STANLEY MEDICINE CO., (Star Drug store) 62 S. THE MOST RELIABLE

To correct the constipated habit, remove sick-headache, relieve dyspepsia, to purify the blood, cure jaundice, liver complaint, and biliousness, Ayer's Pills are unequaled. They are an excellent after-dinner pill, assisting the process of digestion, and cleansing and strengthening the alimentary canal. When taken on the invasion of a cold or a fever, they effectually prevent further progress of the disease. Being sugar-coated and purely vegetable, they are the best medicine, for old and young. Ayer's Pills are indispensable to soldiers, sailors, campers, miners, and travelers, and are everywhere recommended by the medical fraternity. Dr. J. W. Haynes, Palouse, W. T., writes: "Ayer's Pills are the most evenly balanced in their ingredients, of any I know of."

"For more than twenty years I have used Ayer's Pills as a corrective for torpidity of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and to ward off malarial attacks, and they have always done perfect work."—E. P. Goodwin, Publisher Democrat, St. Landry, La.

"I was master of a sailing vessel for many years, and never failed to provide a supply of Ayer's Pills, for the use of both officers and men. They are a safe and reliable and always give satisfaction."—Harry Robinson, 52 E. Pearl st., Fair Haven, Conn.

"For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and having tried a variety of remedies, with only temporary relief, I began, about three months ago, the use of Ayer's Pills, and already my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this cathartic."—Manoel Jorge Pereira, Oporto, Portugal.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

$15,500 FOR A LEG.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD WILL HAVE TO PAY REV. HOLDEN THAT.

Rev. Mr. Holden was awarded $15,500 by the jury in his suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The jury was out three hours.

The plaintiffs though they had sued for $100,000 were much pleased and satisfied with the verdict, which by the way is the largest one a Luzerne county jury ever awarded for a leg.

It was a damage suit for $100,000 against the Pennsylvania Railroad by Rev. Mr. Holden, now of Long Island, but formerly of Hazleton. In August, 1888, Rev. Holden was pastor of the Hazleton Episcopal church and one day while out driving with Mrs. J. C. Haydon, one of his parishoners, a Pennsylvania passenger train struck the buggy at what is known as Cranberry crossing, two miles from Hazleton.

The rig was smashed to pieces, Mrs. Hayden badly bruised, and Rev. Holden had a leg cut off. The case of the plaintiff is that the accident occurred because there was no warning signal given and because as the crossing is on a heavy curve the plaintiff was not able to see the train approaching.

The decision of Rev. Holden to sue the company resulted in a dispute with some of the trustees of the church and he was obliged to leave. The plaintiff was represented by John T. Lenahan, Alex. Farnham and Attorney Drayton, of Philadelphia, a cousin of J. Coleman Drayton, and the defendant company by H. W. Palmer and F. W. Wheaton.

Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Will Blaine Stand?

The question no longer is, Will Mr. Blaine be nominated? but, Will he stand?

If the man from Maine shall maintain his attitude of the past ten days—or since The World first announced the plan of the anti-Harrison leaders to nominate him in spite of everything—that plan will probably be carried out.

Silence will be accepted as consent!—it is already so accepted. And if the Republican party can have Blaine as its candidate it is scarcely conceivable that it will not take him, even by constraint.

And yet there is a doubt. After putting aside a nomination which he might have had in 1888, and declining to be considered a candidate in February last, the question is asked how Mr. Blaine can consent to accept now a nomination that must be fought for and that will leave bitter heart-burnings behind.

Does Mr. Blaine simply covet the unique distinction of being the only American who ever declined a Presidential nomination actually tendered?

Or are the Big Four—Reed, Platt, Quay, and Clarkson—using Mr. Blaine as a cover behind which to rally an opposition that may be utilized eventually for another—for Reed himself, or Sherman, Allison, or Lincoln?

What are the little games inside the big game?—World.

Judge Sadler, of Carlisle, last week filed an opinion which is of interest to all soldiers holding peddling license. The opinion is in the matter of John Webbert versus the county of Cumberland. It seems that Webbert has a soldier license and on that has been purchasing butter, eggs and poultry and selling them. The County Treasurer then comes and demands a huckster's license of $12. This was paid by Webbert and he then brought suit against the county to recover. A case stated was made and Judge Sadler decided against the plaintiff and directed the judgment with cost be entered for the defendant, the county. This decision was made on the ground that the act of Assembly in regard to the soldier's license only permitted the holder to peddle, hawk and vend;" but did not give him "any right to purchase or barter for butter, eggs or poultry."

How to Tell a Good Horse.

"I never ask about a horse's traits," said a horse buyer the other day. "All I want is a good square look in the face. Once in a hundred times I may mistake the head, but not oftener than that, I believe."

It doesn't require an expert to read horses' faces, either. A person who has never handled a horse can saunter down Broadway any afternoon and point out the good, docile family carriage horse, the biting horse, the treacherous animal, the one likely to kick or run at any moment, or the proud, high-spirited horse that may be dangerous and yet not vicious in the least.

The kicking horse can nearly always be singled out by the vicious gleam in his eye which stamps him a born kicker. Of all horses, though, the miserable looking horse attracts most attention. This is the horse persecuted by the check-rein. Like men and women who wear shoes too small, he shows the outward evidence of misery. Many good-natured horses, horseman say, have been made fretful and vicious by being enslaved by the infamous and cruel check-rein. There are horses broken down by long and continuous service for man, which show sad facial expression.

Fixed Stars.

There are no fixed stars in the firmament of mankind. Each shines for the time appointed, and is then blotted out to make room for others. But the heavens never grow wholly dark, for, as one great light fades, flickers, and is extinguished, another appears in an unexpected quarter. Every age has its exceptional men, and though it may seem impossible to fill their places when they depart, it somehow happens—such is the richness of human nature—that their places are always filled.

A Little Girls Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last winter she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones".—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. A. Kleim's Drugstore.
